

KENNETH SHAPIRO

President, CDK Productions
Biography

One of today's most multitalented television producer/directors and a director on the number-one CBS hit comedy series for five seasons, Everybody Loves Raymond; Kenneth Shapiro has been working in television for more than 30 years and is president of CDK Productions, a full service production company.

2007 will be Mr. Shapiro's tenth year directing the Los Angeles County Holiday Celebration and his fourth time as co-producer for the program. His diverse background in over a thousand hours of live, tape and film productions has included an amazing array of programs such as the Academy Awards, Los Angeles Opera, America: Tribute to Heroes, A&E in Concert: Sting in Tuscany...All This Time, American Music Awards, Live-Aid Concert, and Concierto para Mendez. Mr. Shapiro has won two Emmy's for his work on the A&E in Concert: Sting – Inside the songs of Sacred Love and the Academy Awards. His shows have aired on ABC, CBS, NBC, FOX and PBS and in syndication and on numerous cable channels including HBO, Showtime, MTV, TNT, A&E and PAX. He has also produced and directed a bi-lingual children's hip-hop exercise video called Kids Get Movin' that's available on DVD.