Public Comment

A member of the public named William Bailey shared that he’s currently weighing different paths—whether to pursue a tribal, federal, or state route. He expressed a personal belief that anyone with a Social Security Number is, in a way, is Native American. William mentioned that he’s formed a small political party and is working to get more people involved. He also spoke about an upcoming initiative aimed at making California its own country, to remove federal government authority from the land. However, he noted uncertainty about who would hold jurisdiction if that initiative moved forward.

LOS ANGELES CITY/COUNTY NATIVE AMERICAN INDIAN COMMISSION UNAPPROVED MINUTES OF THE MEETING OF AUGUST 19, 2025

Discussion Items

7.1 Discuss AIAN Homelessness in LA County

Commissioner Dr. Andrea Garcia gave a shoutout to Commissioner Caroline Bhalla for organizing the 2025 State of Los Angeles County Housing and Neighborhoods (SOLACHAN) event at The California Endowment on August 18, 2025. The gathering marked the release of LA County's first Housing and Neighborhood Report. The report provides key data on homeownership, rentership, demographics, and homelessness, offering the county a starting point to track progress and remain accountable. Commissioner Bhalla will share the report links with everyone, and other commissioners are encouraged to let her know if there's anything they'd like to add.

Commissioner Dr. Garcia also spoke about her interview with the U.S. Government Accountability Office (GAO), which focused on questions about AIAN homelessness. Commissioner Dr. Garcia strongly urged the GAO to create a separate report on urban Native homelessness, since Native people make up about 80% of the AIAN population and deserve a focused study.

She also presented findings from the 2025 Greater Los Angeles Homeless Count, focusing on American Indian, Alaska Native, or Indigenous individuals. The percentage of Native people experiencing homelessness rose from 3% to 4%. Although the data are limited due to small sample sizes, they still reveal disparities. A chart with red and green boxes indicates which data is reliable. On the second page, health and disability stats stand out: 33% of Native respondents reported substance use disorders—higher than the Latino population. Mental health issues were reported by 40%, and rates of physical and developmental disabilities were nearly double the county average.

Commissioner Dr. Garcia emphasized that service providers should take these needs seriously. She expressed frustration over the lack of accurate data, calling it "ludicrous" that whole numbers are still hard to get. Still, she noted a small win: the report now includes the full definition of homelessness, which is a step forward.

Secretary Bryce Lewis-Smith asked if other major cities have similar reports and if so, suggested it may be useful to compare the findings. Commissioner Dr. Garcia said no but agreed it would be a helpful study. She mentioned Seattle as an example—no but pressure, they revised their data collection methods. At one point, Seattle reported a 15% homelessness rate, which later dropped. In comparison, LA County reports 4%, but Commissioner Dr. Garcia noted that unreleased data suggests LA may have the highest homelessness rate across all racial groups. Secretary Lewis-Smith agreed that having accurate numbers is essential and thanked everyone for their efforts to improve the data.

7.2 Discuss Impacts of Federal Administration on LA County's AIAN Community

Alexandra reported that the county has received Community Services Block Grant (CSBG) funding, with the Department of Public Social Services (DPSS) receiving a larger share. Legislatively, there's ongoing advocacy to maintain this funding. Although President Trump advocated to cut CSBG funding in his FY25-26 budget, the Senate Appropriations Committee released a budget to maintain CSBG funding levels for FY25-26.

Commissioner Rich Toyon emphasized the importance of honoring tradition and creativity, especially during difficult times. He noted that this year's NAHM honorees play a vital role in keeping that spirit alive and relevant.

Secretary Bryce Lewis-Smith expressed concerns about UCLA's undergraduate programs, which have faced significant cuts and even potential disbandment. He encouraged anyone who knows college-age students at UCLA to offer support and care. Alexandra added that advocacy and mutual aid should be prioritized. Commissioner Caroline Bhalla noted that USC is facing a federal budget deficit, leading to layoffs and program cuts.

Angel Martinez, Department of Health Services, spoke from his experience at UC Santa Cruz as a mentor and emphasized the importance of mentoring and community support for UC students. Secretary Lewis-Smith encouraged everyone to think about actionable ways to support Native students.

Commissioner Bhalla reiterated that mentoring remains a valuable option, even in tough times. She acknowledged the ongoing nature of these conversations and urged everyone to take personal responsibility in supporting students. Commissioner Rene' Williams agreed, saying it's crucial to get involved—whether through mentoring, showing up, or simply participating once a month in collective action efforts.

Secretary Lewis-Smith proposed a listening session between USC and UCLA to strategize ways to help. Commissioner Dr. Andrea Garcia suggested that service-related organizations do intentional outreach, especially for students in mental health fields. She recommended that all organizations consider sending letters of support to students to show solidarity and care.

7.3 Discuss LA City Parks Needs Assessment Steering Committee Updates

Commissioner Rich Toyon shared that the LA City Parks Needs Assessment Steering Committee met and is finalizing the Parks Needs Assessment. He shared that they are aiming to release it on September 3rd, with public meetings to follow. The project is moving from Phase 2 to Phase 3, which will focus on sharing results with the public.

Over the past three years, they've studied LA city parks to understand what's needed. Compared to other cities like Dallas, LA invests the least per acre in parks. Areas requiring the most help include Eastern LA and the Western Valley, where there's a lack of green space, shade, and places for residents to gather. These areas also face challenges like homelessness and climate impacts.

Phase 3 will include public meetings starting September 3rd. Commissioner Toyon asked for a meeting with the full commission and suggested two tribal outreach options—either inviting tribal members or visiting their communities. He stressed that no parks will be removed, and the goal is to add more.

LA's current parks budget is $223 million, but $500 million is needed for proper staffing and services. A full wish list would raise the budget to $5.2 billion, showing how underfunded the system is. They're exploring ways to use land like watersheds for parks, though it competes with housing and transit needs. More parks could help reduce crime and benefit the city as a whole. Private sponsorships are being considered, especially with the upcoming Olympics. Commissioner Toyon expects to receive the final report soon and will share it. Community meetings are planned for November, and all commissioners are encouraged to attend and give input.

7.4 Discuss the Preservation of Flat Top Rock in Lincoln Heights

Commissioner Mona Morales Recalde shared that the Gabrielino Tongva are the original people of Lincoln Heights, and Flat Top Rock holds deep cultural and spiritual significance. The land was sold five years ago, and someone attempted to build a house on it. Now, the current owner is seeking permits to build not only on Flat Top Rock but also on the surrounding hillside. Commissioner Morales Recalde emphasized that Flat Top Rock is a sacred site, and for the Gabrielino Tongva, conflict resolution traditionally involves song and dance, making this land especially meaningful.

Commissioner Morales Recalde shared that a local tribe is actively opposing any construction on Flat Top Rock. She shared plans to confirm whether the site is officially listed as sacred site by the State of California Native American Heritage Commission (NAHC). She hopes the LANAIC will support preservation efforts by writing a formal letter, which she is willing to draft for Chairperson Shawn Imitates Dog review. She also expressed hope that Mayoral appointees will back the initiative.

Finally, Commissioner Morales Recalde shared that after conversations began with the landowner, fencing was placed on the site, preventing ceremonial use. Beyond its cultural importance, Commissioner Morales Recalde noted the location's stunning views as another reason to protect it.

Commissioner Dr. Andrea Garcia requested additional information on Flat Top Rock and the efforts to protect it. Secretary Bryce Lewis-Smith volunteered to be a thought partner in drafting the letter.

Presentations

8.1 Presentation on How to Best Serve LA County's American Indian and Alaska Native Community - Andrea Diaz (Outreach Coordinator, Sacred Path Indigenous Wellness Center)

Sacred Path Indigenous Wellness Center Outreach Coordinator Andrea Diaz provided a presentation on How to Best Serve LA County's American Indian and Alaska Native Community.

Commissioner John Only A Chief asked whether Sacred Path assists individuals who come from Oklahoma for treatment but are removed from the program after violating its term? He also inquired if the organization helps with relocation costs. Ms. Diaz responded that Sacred Path has had opportunities to support in such cases. Commissioner Rene' Williams added that individuals must meet certain requirements, including having a formal diagnosis.

Ms. Diaz explained that Sacred Path is equipped to help streamline the process, remove barriers, and even handle documentation virtually to make access easier. Alexandra shared a personal example, thanking Sacred Path for stepping in to help a young woman in need, and praised the staff for their timely support.

8.2 Los Angeles County Community Engagement Efforts to Address Homelessness and Housing Insecurity – Danielle Tobey (Consultant, Change Well Project) and Angel J Martinez, M.S. (Chief, Equity and Engagement Officer at Community Programs at Los Angeles County Department of Health Services)

Change Well Project consultant Danielle Tobey and Los Angeles County Department of Health Services Chief, Equity and Engagement Officer at Community Programs Angel J Martinez, M.S. provided a presentation on Los Angeles County Community Engagement Efforts to Address Homelessness and Housing Insecurity.

Ms. Tobey shared that commissioners have been invited to participate in each of the eight SPA (Service Planning Area) community workshops to help inform the design of the new County Homelessness & Housing Department. Commissioner Mona Morales Recalde inquired whether local tribes were being included in the outreach efforts. Danielle confirmed that outreach had begun and asked for suggestions on strengthening government-to-government relationships. Commissioner Morales Recalde recommended requesting a contact list from the Native American Heritage Commission.

Mr. Martinez explained that the two-day workshops are designed to foster deep discussions about the future of the department, touching on issues many commissioners are already engaged in, such as homelessness, housing, mental health, and environmental concerns. Danielle added that the workshops will be safe spaces for people to voice concerns and offer solutions.

LOS ANGELES CITY/COUNTY NATIVE AMERICAN INDIAN COMMISSION UNAPPROVED MINUTES OF THE MEETING OF AUGUST 19, 2025

Commissioner Dr. Andrea Garcia asked if participants would be informed ahead of time about the key topics or “buckets” they’ll be asked to address. Commissioner Williams emphasized the importance of preparation, especially for those who may struggle to speak up due to past harms. Even simple bullet points shared in advance could make a big difference in helping people feel ready to participate.

Alexandra inquired if feedback from the recent AIAN Housing Summit had been consolidated and shared. Commissioner Williams said the information is available on a website and can be shared. Alexandra requested that it be sent out before the workshops to help commissioners prepare and be coordinated in their advocacy. Commissioner Caroline Bhalla added that having talking points in advance would be helpful.

Chair’s Report

9.1 General Updates

This item was tabled until the September 16, 2025, meeting.

Executive Director’s Report

10.1 General Updates

Alexandra is currently preparing a draft of the FY 2024–2025 Report for the review and discussion of the LANAIC at their September meeting. She reminded the body that per their Code they are required to submit an annual report to the Board of Supervisors and Commission Services.

Committee & Ad Hoc Committee Reports

11.1 Executive Committee

Secretary Bryce Lewis-Smith tabled the item.

11.2 Self Governance Board

Alexandra shared that Commissioner Chrissie Castro raised a key question about what would happen to the LANAIC Self Governance Board (SGB) if the Community Services Block Grant (CSBG) program was defunded by the federal government. Alexandra shared that she reached out to their CSBG Field Representative James Scott who explained that if CSBG funding were eliminated, it wouldn’t just be a budget issue, it would require a legal change in order for the SGB to be dissolved. The SGB’s role is tied directly to CSBG through statute, so defunding would essentially make the SGB ineffective, but the law would have to change to result in the dissolution of it.

LOS ANGELES CITY/COUNTY NATIVE AMERICAN INDIAN COMMISSION UNAPPROVED MINUTES OF THE MEETING OF AUGUST 19, 2025

11.3 2025 Native American Heritage Month Ad Hoc Committee

Secretary Bryce Lewis-Smith shared that there were no significant updates, except that the honorees were officially voted on during tonight's meeting, and things are moving forward. Commissioner Dawn Jackson is currently working on the 2025 NAHM LA City Hall Bridge Gallery and emphasized the importance of being more intentional this year. She shared that last year, 56 art pieces were submitted so the goal now is to introduce a clear theme and encourage artists to follow it. Commissioner Jackson noted that only one person adhered to the theme last year.

Alexandra added that two of this year's honorees are deeply involved in the arts, which could be a great opportunity to highlight their work and tie it into the gallery.

11.4 LANAIC Bylaws Ad Hoc Committee

Secretary Bryce Lewis-Smith tabled the item.

Commissioner General Comments on Non-Agenda Items

Commissioner Mona Morales Recalde thanked fellow commissioners who attended the ceremony on Saturday, August 2, 2025, celebrating the return of ancestral Land to the Gabrielino Tongva San Gabriel Band of Mission Indians. She noted that once the site becomes ADA-compliant, it could possibly be a meeting location for the LANAIC.

Commissioner John Only A Chief shared that the event featured a thoughtful presentation and was graced by notable guests, including the Mayor of San Gabriel and California House Representative Judy Chu. Commissioner Only A Chief congratulated Commissioner Morales Recalde, who played a significant role in making this momentous occasion possible.

Commissioner Caroline Bhalla shared that during Supervisor Holly Mitchell's commissioner convening, someone asked if anyone was interested in joining the Beach Commission. She encouraged commissioners to speak with mayoral staff or supervisors about open commission seats and suggested referring Native community members for those opportunities.

Alexandra reported that by next month, commissioners will be able to preview the updated look of the LANAIC web page on the Department of Arts and Culture website. She mentioned that the content needs refreshing and asked commissioners to send high resolution headshots and updated bios. She shared that the Department already has strong visuals from its work with Native communities, but she invited commissioners to send additional credited photos, especially close-ups, scenic shots, or group photos that would enhance the site.

Commissioner Only A Chief reflected on the recent community prayer gathering at Griffith Park, calling it a beautiful and well-organized event. He also reminded everyone about upcoming powwows: one in Hawaiian Gardens over the weekend, and another in Pomona at the end of the month.

LOS ANGELES CITY/COUNTY NATIVE AMERICAN INDIAN COMMISSION
UNAPPROVED MINUTES OF THE MEETING OF AUGUST 19, 2025

Treasurer Denise Escoto raised the idea of revisiting creating an Indian Child Welfare Act (ICWA) Committee, a topic that had been previously discussed. Alexandra responded with a recommendation to consider forming either a standing committee or an ad hoc committee to focus on ICWA-related efforts. She explained that while standing committees are subject to the Brown Act and come with more formal requirements, ad hoc committees are more flexible, but they must be project-based and time-limited.

Announcements/Future Agenda Items

No announcements/future agenda items were provided.

Commission Adjournment

Secretary Bryce Lewis-Smith shared that the next LANAIC meeting will be held on Tuesday, September 16, 2025, at 6:30 p.m. in the Hall of Administration, Room 372, 500 W. Temple Street, Los Angeles, CA 90012.

LA City Council
200 N. Spring Street
Los Angeles, CA 90012

Dear LA City Council Members,

On behalf of the Los Angeles City/County Native American Indian Commission (LANAIC), we are writing to express our profound and unwavering opposition to the proposed development on Flat Top Rock in the Lincoln Heights area. This sacred site, located on Prewett Street, is of immense cultural and historical significance to the Gabrieleno Tongva people, the original inhabitants and caretakers of this land.

For countless generations, Flat Top Rock has served as a revered ceremonial ground and a place of spiritual connection. It is not merely a geographic feature but a living part of our history, a place where elders and ancestors performed healing rituals, where community gatherings were held, and where the spiritual threads connect the people to the land. The land itself is seen as a relative, and to build on this space is to desecrate a sacred relative, a fundamental act of disrespect to our culture and heritage.

Flat Top is recognized by the State of California Native American Heritage Commission as a sacred site and is documented as such under AB 52. The proposed development, in its current form, represents another painful chapter of cultural erasure. Each new building erected on these ancestral grounds buries not just the soil, but the memory, history, and spiritual identity of the Gabrieleno Tongva. This is not simply a matter of land use; it is a direct continuation of a historical pattern that has systematically denied the presence and importance of Indigenous peoples in the narrative of Los Angeles.

We advocate for the immediate protection of this space. We urge City Council to halt all plans for development and to work collaboratively with the Gabrieleno Tongva tribes that have been working with the LA City Planning department. Preserving this space is a critical step towards reconciliation and a true acknowledgment of the City's rich, yet often overlooked, Indigenous history.

Protecting this site is an opportunity for the City of Los Angeles to demonstrate its commitment to honoring its past and respecting the rights of the First People of this land. We want to ensure that its historical and spiritual significance is preserved for future generations.

Sincerely,

Shawn Imitates-Dog

The County of Los Angeles recognizes that we occupy land originally and still inhabited and cared for by the Tongva, Tataviam, Serrano, Kizh, and Chumash Peoples. We honor and pay respect to their elders and descendants — past, present, and emerging — as they continue their stewardship of these lands and waters. We acknowledge that settler colonization resulted in land seizure, disease, subjugation, slavery, relocation, broken promises, genocide, and multigenerational trauma. This acknowledgment demonstrates our responsibility and commitment to truth, healing, and reconciliation and to elevating the stories, culture, and community of the original inhabitants of Los Angeles County. We are grateful to have the opportunity to live and work on these ancestral lands. We are dedicated to growing and sustaining relationships with Native peoples and local tribal governments, including (in no particular order) the

Mission Statement

The primary purpose of the Los Angeles City/County Native American Indian Commission (LANAIC) is to improve the health and well-being of the Los Angeles American Indian and Alaska Native (AIAN) community. It accomplishes its purpose through many strategies, including but not limited to increasing the acquisition of funding resources available to the AIAN community, advocating for policy that will improve the health and well-being of AIANs, and gathering and disseminating information about AIANs in Los Angeles County. In performing these functions, the Commission will represent the interests and concerns of AIAN of all tribal and cultural backgrounds, religious convictions, gender identities, and social circumstances.

Diversity, Equity & Inclusion

As an advisory Commission to the Board of Supervisors, the LANAIC understands that it is charged to ensure equity, diversity, and inclusion among the constituents it serves.

The LANAIC strives to create an environment at all meetings that allows members, public, and stakeholders to share and express openly their ideas, opinions, and beliefs. This is done so by the LANAIC opening meetings with an invocation, personal introductions by the Commissioners, and with the Chair inviting the public and guests to introduce themselves. This approach creates a welcoming, respectful, and inclusive environment.

Historical Background

On June 25, 1976, Los Angeles County Supervisor Kenneth Hahn and City of Los Angeles Mayor Tom Bradley signed an ordinance establishing the Los Angeles City/County Native American Indian Commission (LANAIC) at the Los Angeles Civic Mall, which is now Grand Park. The establishment of the LANAIC came at the advocacy efforts of the City and County's American Indian and Alaska Native (AIAN) communities. For nearly 50 years, the LANAIC has uplifted and advocated for the concerns and needs of the AIAN community, the largest of any county in the U.S. The LANAIC is comprised of five members appointed by the LA County Board of Supervisors, five members appointed by the Mayor of the City of Los Angeles, and five members elected by Los Angeles County's AIAN community through elections held every 4 years by the LANAIC.

In the early 1990s, the Board of Supervisors established the LANAIC's Self Governance Board (LANAIC SGB). The LANAIC SGB is an eight-member body that advises and supports the Board of Supervisors administering the Community Services Block Grant Native American Set-aside (CSAIBG) program. CSAIBG funding is contracted to subrecipient agencies to provide critical poverty-alleviating services to AIAN individuals and families living at or below 200% Federal Poverty Line. In 2021, the CSAIBG dollars were successfully leveraged to secure $500,000 in annual County Care First Community Investment funding for FY 21-22, FY 22-23, and FY 23-24 to address homelessness and housing insecurity experienced by the AIAN population. In addition to administering programs that provide direct services to LAC residents, the work of the LANAIC has expanded to meet the evolving directives and priorities of the Board of Supervisors and the City of LA's Mayor and City Council.

Since 1976, the LANAIC and the LANAIC SGB have worked on a variety of projects and achieved many accomplishments. Below are some of the past accomplishments of the two bodies in chronological order:

All four of the policy briefs addressed the Status of AIAN in Los Angeles, analyzing (1) population changes; (2) economic indicators post-Great Recession; (3) health insurance coverage; and (4) labor. FY24-25 Accomplishments

Peter Pan at the Pantages

The LANAIC collaborated with Supervisor Lindsay Horvath and the Pantages Theater to host a Native American community night for playwright Larissa FastHorse's (Sicangu Lakota) Peter Pan on July 22, 2024. The event began with a reception celebrating Ms. FastHorse.

2024 Indigenous Peoples' Day

The Department of Arts and Culture, the home department of the LANAIC, partnered with the Music Center (TMC) to program a 2-day Indigenous Peoples Day celebration. TMC engaged The Chapter House, a female Native led non-profit to produce the event. The event entitled, The Chapter House Indigenous Peoples' Day Party, created a space on two Saturdays in October 2024 for cultural affirmation and joy among the county's Indigenous communities to foster greater awareness, respect, and understanding of the ongoing cultural contributions of Indigenous people among Los Angeles County residents.

FY25-26 Budget Request Letters

At the October 15, 2024 meeting, the LANAIC adopted FY24-25 budget request letters to the Board of Supervisors and Mayor Bass. The request to the Board included funding to stand up the County Office of Tribal Affairs and for a dedicated position in the CEO Homelessness Initiative to address AIAN homelessness. Additionally, the letter to the Board included requests for the County to allocate funding to procure a training focused on building the understanding of the County's workforce on the unique history and issues facing Native American people in LA, and for the development of a new LANAIC website. The request to Mayor Bass included funding support for the CEO HI position as well as ongoing funding for a dedicated full-time City staff position and an increase to the annual City contribution to the LANAIC. Additionally, the letter to the mayor included requests for ongoing funding to support an annual Native American Heritage Month reception as well as for Indigenous Peoples Day programming.

2024 Native American Heritage Month

LA City Council and the LA County Board of Supervisors honored the three 2024 NAHM honorees selected by the LANAIC:

- Chief Anthony Morales (Gabrieleno Tongva) - Spirit of Tradition
- Cynthia Ruiz (Cherokee) - Spirit of Community
- Kenny Ramos (Barona Band of Mission Indians) - Spirit of Creativity

The LA City Council proclaimed NAHM on November 22, 2024, and honored the NAHM honorees. The in-chambers presentation was followed by a community reception at the LA City forecourt coordinated by the LANAIC. The LANAIC also provided materials to the LA City Department of Cultural Affairs for the 2024 NAHM Cultural Guide & Calendar.

At the September 17, 2024 meeting, the LANAIC adopted a letter to Supervisor Hilda Solis requesting free access for Native American residents to County parks and museums during 2024 Native American Heritage Month. The LA County Board of Supervisors proclaimed November 2024 NAHM via Board Motion at their October 22, 2024 meeting and included the following directive - direct the Natural History Museum, the Los Angeles County Museum of Art, the Department of Beaches and Harbors, Department of Parks and Recreation, County Library, and other relevant Departments to, in coordination with the Anti-Racism, Diversity and Inclusion (ARDI) Initiative, provide free access for one day on or about, and in celebration of, Native American Heritage Month, to appropriate facilities (such as museums and beach parking) for American Indian and Alaska Native community members.

LANAIC Retreat

On Saturday, January 25, 2025, the LANAIC held a day-long planning retreat at the Natural History Museum. Throughout the day, the LANAIC discussed priorities and developed a 2025 work plan.

Community Listening Session

On Saturday, February 15, 2025, the LANAIC hosted a listening session at the Autry Museum of the West for AIAN community members. The purpose of the listening session was for community members to share how they had been impacted by the Eaton and Palisades fires, as well as questions and concerns they have about the new Federal administration. 19 community members participated. Participants were divided into 3 small groups and participated in small group discussions facilitated by LANAIC Commissioners. The following three questions were discussed:

1. How are you impacted by the wildfires?
2. What are your concerns about the federal executive orders and policy changes?
3. What support do you need?

At the March 18, 2025 LANAIC meeting, the body adopted synthesized notes from the community listening session as well as accompanying memos to the Board of Supervisors (BOS) and Mayor Karen Bass. These documents were transmitted via email to the BOS and Mayor Bass on March 19.

At the May 20, 2025 LANAIC meeting, the body adopted letters to the BOS and Mayor Bass that included formal recommendations, grounded in community reflections shared at the January 25, 2025 Community Listening Session, as well as the findings of A Report on Harms Against Local Tribes (January 2023), developed in partnership with five local California Native American Tribes. The recommendations were rooted in a shared goal to ensure the City and the County's policies, practices, and partnerships respect tribal sovereignty.

2025 Native American Heritage Month

At the April 15, 2025 meeting, the LANAIC selected Firekeepers: Honoring Tribal Firefighters, Indigenous Stewardship, and Future Ancestors as the 2025 Native American Heritage Month theme to recommend to LA City and LA County.

Addressing AIAN Homelessness

Throughout FY24-25, the LANAIC continued to advocate to City and County elected officials to dedicate resources and funding to adequately address the growing homelessness crisis impacting the AIAN community.

On August 5, 2024, the LANAIC released the Advancing Indigenous Housing Rights in Los Angeles: International Best Practice and a Legal Framework report. The report release included social media assets, a website posting, and formal communications to elected officials.

As mentioned above at the October 15, 2024 meeting, the LANAIC adopted FY25-26 budget request letters to the BOS and Mayor Karen Bass, which included funding requests for a full-time AIAN position in the County's CEO HI.

At the October 15, 2024 meeting, the LANAIC approved the body cohosting a virtual American Indian and Alaska Native Homelessness research symposium on November 21, 2024, in partnership with the USC Homelessness Prevention Institute.

At the January 25, 2025 LANAIC meeting, the body approved sunsetting the Homelessness Committee and realigning the priority initiative back into the regular meeting of the LANAIC. The structural move was also symbolic as it affirmed the body's commitment to addressing AIAN homelessness.

LANAIC Self Governance Board

Public Law 105-285 (the CSBG Act) and the California Government Code require that the State of California Department of Community Services & Development (CSD) secure a Community Action Plan (CAP), including a Community Needs Assessment (CNA) from each agency that receives CSBG funding.

Section 676(b)(11) of the CSBG Act directs that receipt of a CAP is a condition to receive funding. Section 12747(a) of the California Government Code requires the CAP to assess poverty-related needs, available resources, feasible goals, and strategies that yield program priorities consistent with standards of effectiveness established for the program.

To inform the 2026-2027 Community Action Plan, the LANAIC Self Governance Board (LANAIC SGB) developed an updated Community Needs Assessment survey tool in the Spring of 2024 and began disseminating the survey in July 2024. The web-based survey remained open through January 2025. The survey findings, in addition to other reports and materials, informed the draft CAP/CNA that was shared at a Community Hearing at LA City College on Saturday, May 17, 2025.

The LANAIC SGB adopted the 2026-2027 CAP/CNA on July 15, 2025, and it was transmitted via email on July 16, 2025, to the State of California Department of Community Services & Development (CSD). CSD formally accepted the 2026-2027 CAP/CNA on August 22, 2025.

Native American Community Input on How to Move from Houselessness to Home In Los Angeles

The Takeaway

Native American people in Los Angeles desire belonging, visibility, cultural safety, and self-determination.

Native people in LA feel erased by mainstream culture, by our educational system, and by our larger systems. We are rarely included in data and reports, and have less access to resources as a result. Visibility in systems, data, everyday signage and art, in education, and beyond is an important antidote in helping Native people feel belonging in LA.

Many Native people often seek services from Native serving organizations, regardless of distance or travel time. Not only is this indicative of our desire to be seen as our full selves and feel like we're part of community (cultural safety and belonging), but it underscores how our agencies move beyond invisible boundaries physically, and in how we incorporate love into services.

Lastly, Native people know best how to engage and serve our people. While we value the importance of partners and allies, we ultimately wish to be able to self-determine our own future, not one that is defined by others or systems entrenched in colonial worldview and practice.

Over years of listening and learning, our community has made it clear that this is more than just fixing houselessness. We aim to heal not only the physical, but the cultural, and spiritual homelessness that has resulted in removal of Indigenous people from our homelands and cultural ways of being. We are looking to make LA a safe and healing home for current and future generations.

Community Needs

- Native American Cultural District: Native people desire a safe place to gather, and reconnect with cultural identity, traditions, and ways of being. This could strengthen belonging, visibility, sense of place and cultural pride, as well as things like the Native workforce, economy, and culturally supportive housing.
- Culturally Supportive Housing: Housing with culturally specific services and practices to enhance residents' well-being, identity, and sense of belonging.
- Tribal Consent and Consultation: The first peoples of these lands, the Tongva, Tataviam, Serrano, Kizh, and Chumash Peoples, deserve the respect of tribal consultation. That is, the formal government-to-government dialogue between government agencies and tribal Nations to discuss proposals, regulations, and policies that may affect tribes, respecting their inherent sovereignty and right to self-determination.

Systemic Responsibilities

Equity in Data and Policy:

- Ensure that best practices on Native data are incorporated into every work product. Update point-in-time count methodologies to more accurately count Native people experiencing homelessness (e.g. respondent driven sampling).
- Streamline contracting processes across County departments with Native-led organizations.
- Incorporate targeting questions into triage tools in order to ensure effective and equitable services.
- Develop a policy on culturally responsive housing in order to demonstrate the principles of targeted universalism and housing justice.

Equity in Resources:

- Donate publicly held lands to seed a Native American Cultural District and/or culturally supportive housing. This part of the 2019 Board Motion was never achieved.
- Fund Native-led organizations directly.
- Given the complexity of LA's expansive geography, Native-led organizations could benefit from a dedicated housing matcher and/or specific AIAN case conferencing.

Equity in Representation:

- Native representation in the respective governance tables is imperative. Lack of Native representation at decision-making tables further silences our needs.
- An ongoing full-time "AIAN Coordinator" like the position currently housed at LAHSA position is imperative.
- An ongoing Deputy Chief Equity Officer in the new department is imperative.
- Continuing the work of County's Internal AIAN Working Group on Homelessness, currently led by the Homeless Initiative is imperative.
