PUBLIC ART RESOURCES FOR ARTISTS

PUBLIC ART NETWORK

http://www.americansforthearts.org/services/public_art_network/

Americans for the Arts' Public Art Network (PAN) develops professional services for the broad array of individuals and organizations engaged in the expanding field of public art. More than 350 public art programs exist in the United States at the state, local and national level. PAN connects the field by stimulating dialogue, discussing critical issues, developing public art products and services, and providing information through the website and the PAN Listserv.

PUBLIC ART NETWORK BLOG

PUBLIC ARTIST FORUM

<http://groups.yahoo.com/group/publicartistforum/>

For visual artists and related professionals active in the creation of permanent or temporary art work for public spaces, or those who would like to be, this forum is a place to exchange questions, advice, support and wisdom about the field of public art.

PUBLIC ART REVIEW

<http://forecastart.org/>

Public Art Review is the only national journal focused on exploring the many dimensions of public art. Each issue provides opinion, analysis, criticism and discussion about the nature and trends in public art. Published semi-annually since 1989, our readership includes artists, architects, curators, city planners, educators, design professionals, program administrators, community leaders, writers, and students.

LA CULTURE NET – YAHOO GROUP

<http://groups.yahoo.com/group/laculturenet/>

LA Culture Net is a forum in which arts administrators, artists, and anyone passionate about the arts in Los Angeles County can communicate with each other. Appropriate postings include announcements of job listings in the field, and art/cultural policy discussions about all topics, including arts advocacy.

EXPERIENCE LA

www.experiencela.com

Experience LA is an exciting new online resource for exploring the LA Region's wealth of cultural attractions. It provides searchable destination and event directories, interactive maps and cultural itineraries, and easy-to-use information on using public transit to see it all.
